handcut is a clothing concept that is well overdue.

The emphasis is on fashion items that are unique and – most importantly – look great.

But the difference is that every item has been deconstructed and recreated from some of the world's leading fashion brands.

handcut will not only have you looking great, but as importantly you will feel great knowing that you have helped the environment by wearing our clothes.

By recreating these fashion items, handcut is saving the environment by recycling some of the world's best fabrics. Because of this our world uses less energy and less water.

Not that you would know, handcut original fashion is so good, you would wear it anyway.

In store we have a fantastic range of

- handcut – one of a kind designer clothing constructed from 100% vintage fabrics
- b'loved – fashion constructed from the sustainable bamboo jersey
- preloved – clothing constructed from vintage + new fabrics
- kara smith – handmade vintage fabric handbags
- knitwit - accessories constructed from recycled + vintage knitting needles
- jackie brazil - amazing styled accessories made from resin
- edgar and capital m – basic cotton tee and leggings
- bloom – selected lip glosses
